AUGUST, 31st.

6 A. M.	80°
2 P. M.	88°

——Raleigh Council, No. 227, Friends of Temperance, meets to-night.

——The pavements are filled with boxes, barrels, crates and coops. Nuisance!

——The cotton year of 1875 ended yesterday. The receipts in this city for the five days ending August 31st, were 125 bales.

——That little bill and the genial dunnist are now hand in hand on their monthly peregrinations, and life is little better than a burden.

——During the month of August, 81 deeds, mortgages and land bonds, were recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of this county.

——Mr. S. A. Parham, who was badly used up in the recent "battle of Milburne" has so far recovered as to be able to resume his duties on the police force.

——Messrs. Hammill & Weir, the brick contractors, have finished all of the brick work on the Mahler building, and in a day or two will commence the plastering.

——The white postmaster at Littleton, in Halifax county, on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, has been removed and a negro substituted in his place. This is in the midst of a wealthy and intelligent section.

——A revival of religion is in progress at Cool Spring Methodist Church, four and a half miles west of this city. Rev. W. J. Crowder has charge of this church. He was assisted, yesterday, by Rev. L. Branson, of the city.

——The NEWS and Tourgee are in the associated press dispatches. Now let ex-His Honor or His ex-Honor, or ex anything else you please, except "an ex-Penitentiary convict," sue the associated press for calling him "a carpet-bagger."

——August gave us a parting shot, which will be remembered. Summoning all of his failing energies, he condensed them into one day of heat, and ruined, as far as one day could, the reputation of the month for being cooler than it usually is.

——The smoke house of Mr. Nick Bryan, overseer on the place of John Gatlin, Esq., two miles east of the city, was entered by thieves, Tuesday night, and robbed of three hundred pounds of western bacon. There was little else in the smoke house.

——The Commissioners of the Western Insane Asylum, located at Morganton, will, to-day, draw from the State Treasury the sum of $21,000, this being the residue not yet paid over, of the amount appropriated by the Legislature for this building.

——As there seems to be a misapprehension in regard to who will be entitled to purchase a Sunday School Centennial ticket, we would state that upon enquiry we find that only the Sunday School children and their teachers are contemplated. From seventy-five to one hundred of these will go.

——There was some doubt in the community, yesterday, as to the exact meaning of the associated press telegram in yesterday's paper, stating that Gov. Seymour had been "nominated by acclamation" by the Saratoga Convention. The language was ambiguous. The telegrams of this morning set the matter at rest.

——This, the ninth month of the Centennial year, will be chiefly distinguished by the fact that the circus will be here before September is gone, and, too, by the fact, that before its days are numbered, county nominations will be made everywhere, and the candidates, independents included, and the colonels, will hold the balance of power in this country.

Judge Settle Answers a Question.

It appears that the Democratic press of this State has all along been doing Judge Settle a gross injustice, by saying that he has not answered any of the questions propounded to him by Gov. Vance. We for one are not willing to do injustice to even a political opponent, and hasten to make the amende. We have it from headquarters that Judge Settle did answer one of these questions, and it was after this wise: After one of his red-mouthed attacks upon Vance and the Confederate Government, Vance asked him if he did not vote for Jeff. Davis for President of the Confederate States. He stopped awhile, looked around, and finally answered the question; he said he had forgotten whether he did or not!

The Board of Aldermen—The Water Works.

This evening the Board of Aldermen meet in regular monthly session, when the question of water works will in all probability be brought up In view of the amount of feeling in the public mind regarding this matter, it is hardly probable that the Board will pass it over without taking some action upon this subject. What this will be, cannot yet be told, but it is safe to say that the people at large expect something, and that they should, is both natural and proper. The first thing in order, looking to the establishment of water works, is the appointment of a committee to correspond with proper parties and to ascertain, as nearly as possible, the cost of affording to the city a sufficient water supply. It is therefore suggested that such a committee be appointed this evening, and that it be instructed to open correspondence at once to gather the information needed, and to report as early as may be, to a regular or special session of the Board.

The necessity for more water is manifest. It is needed for both sanitary and fire purposes, and the peril increases the longer the want is unsupplied. The cost will of course be considerable, but it can be met, and the expenditure will prove to be economy in the long run. It is believed that the citizens generally, the property-holders and tax-payers at any rate, are in favor of the proposition, and it is their interest after all that should be first protected, since they bear the burdens of government

Change of Schedule on the N. C. Railroad.

The change of schedule on the North Carolina Railroad, foreshadowed a few days ago in these columns, will take place next Sunday morning. The schedules are printed and have been distributed. Under the new arrangement the passenger and mail train going east will leave Greensboro at 6:30 A. M., leave Raleigh at 11:15 A. M., and arrive at Goldsboro at 1:45 P. M; going west, the train will leave Goldsboro at 2:20 P. M., leave Raleigh at 5:05 P. M., arrive at Greensboro, 10:05 P. M., Going east passengers will take breakfast at Company Shops, and going west, will take supper at Durham. This train connects at Greensboro in the morning with the through express from Charlotte to Richmond, and at night with the same train from Richmond to Charlotte. The present day freight and accommodation train between Raleigh and Goldsboro will be suspended, and freight trains will be run through from Greensboro to Goldsboro, leaving Raleigh, going east, at 3.25 A. M., and leaving Raleigh, going west, at 6.25 A. M.

Raleigh Gentlemen Speak in Granville.

The Oxford Torchlight makes complimentary mention of speeches which were made in that place, last week, by Messrs. W. W. Jones and W. N. H. Smith, of this city. A committee of the Tilden and Vance Club had been appointed to wait on them and request speeches of them, they being then in the town. Of their remarks, the Torchlight says: "Mr. Jones proceeded to address the club in a capital speech, devoting himself chiefly to a discussion of the proposed constitutional amendments. His speech evidently made a very decided impression. Mr. Jones was followed by Mr. Smith, who, in an eloquent manner, pointed out the degradation and iniquity from which the odious Canby Constitution was brought forth. * * * * * Mr. Smith also took a wider range, in State and National politics, holding up to view the vices and crimes which had become so widespread under Grant's administration. * * * His speech was one of eminent ability, and was listened to with profound attention."

Personal.

Dr. W. J. Hawkins is in town, looking improved by his trip to Buffalo.

Hon. J. C. Harper, of Caldwell, and Col. T. George Walton, of Burke, are in the city, on business connected with the Western Insane Asylum.

R. G. Lewis, Esq, and lady, and E. R. Stamps, Esq., and Mrs. John R. Williams and daughter, have returned from the Centennial.

Mr. P. F. Pescud, Jr, is back from a three weeks trip across the mountains.

Mr. John Armstrong is absent on a mountain trip.

P. C. Cameron, Esq., of Hillsboro, is in the city.

A Centennial Knife.

Mr. D. K. Moore, of Barton's Creek Township, this county, has in his possession a barlow knife, which was found on his place some days ago, through the instrumentality of a heavy rain, which washed the dirt off it. The date "1760" is on the blade of the knife, which is about one-third worn. Unless the figures on the blade are bogus, which is not likely, the knife is 116 years old.

Vance on the Way Home and at Home.

They say that at almost every station of any size, on the North Carolina Railroad, Wednesday, the people came out in crowds, and flung up their hats and said, "hurrah for Vance!" and made him come out and give them a talk. At Durham, the Shops, Greensboro, High Point, Concord, and other places, they came out to look at and to hear the man who is soon to go in and out before them and rule over them. The Charlotte Observer, of yesterday, says that upon his arrival there he was met by a crowd of 1,000 people, headed by Col. Wm. Johnston, Mayor of the city, Dr. T. J. Moore, candidate for the Senate, and C. E. Grier, Esq., President of the Zeb. Vance Club. As he got off the train, the Observer says, he could hardly go through the crowd to the phæton which was in waiting for him. When seated in the vehicle with the committee of reception, a procession bearing torch lights, and a large transparency, with life size pictures of Tilden and Vance, formed and moved up the street, headed by the band. The transparency was borne by a colored member of the Zeb Vance Club At Independence Square the crowd stopped and Col. Johnston addressed them briefly, after which Gov. Vance recited to them the story of the canvass, and of how he had been "ovated" everywhere, and of how the people are getting mighty tired of the Radicals and the dog fennel, and of how we are going to lick 'em in November, and the crowd went off happy.

The Fall Trade

Will soon begin to come in, and with it will come (or should come) many country merchants and small dealers, to buy goods in stock or by retail. Many who have never been here before, can be induced, by a proper effort, to come now, and we submit that there is no more proper or judicious course by which his result can be compassed, than by a system of advertising on the part of merchants here. There is no advertising so effective as that through the columns of a well-established and largely circulated newspaper; and while we do not wish to immodestly intrude our claims, we invite the business men of this community to a careful examination of our subscription books, in order that they may learn for themselves the extent of our circulation, and the probable advantages which would flow from an advertisement in our columns.

Another Libel Suit.

Mr. Albion W. Tourgee, ex Judge of the Greensboro District, has entered suit against the NEWS Publishing Company, and Geo. B. Enniss, late city editor of the NEWS, for libel, in that, during the session of the recent Republican State Convention, Mr Enniss, in his report of the proceedings, alluded to the plaintiff in this action as "an escaped convict from the Ohio Penitentiary." The papers were served, yesterday, upon Colonel Walter Clark, who accepted service. The summons is made returnable to the Spring term of Guilford Court, although the Fall term of this court has not yet begun. Messrs. T. B. Keogh and T. R. Purnell are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

If Mr. Tourgee should sue every paper which has charged him with being an escaped convict, and should recover damages he will be, in the language of ex-Doorkeeper Fitzhugh, "a bigger man than old Grant," in point of wealth, at least.

An Offer Which Cannot be Accepted.

A letter was received, yesterday, at the Executive office from the Chief of Ordnance, at Washington, asking for a detailed statement of all the arms and ordnance supplies belonging to the general government, which were in this State, and which were issued, between January 1st, 1861, and April 9th, 1865, to troops which were afterwards mustered into the United States service. It is offered to give this State credit for these arms and supplies, if they were so applied, but sad to relate, they were not. One of the largest arsenals in the South at the beginning of the war, was that at Fayetteville, but instead of these arms being put into the hands of Federal soldiers, they were given to Confederate States troops and by these used. So North Carolina gets no credit at Washington on this score.

County Nominations.

It is learned from private sources that the Democrats of Richmond county, at their recent convention, nominated for the House, R. H. Johnson; for Sheriff, A. C. McFadgen, and a full county ticket

The Democrats of Forsythe have just nominated for the House, J. M. Stafford; for Sheriff, J. G. Hill. Hon. T. J. Wilson has been nominated for the Senate for Forsythe and Stokes.

It is learned from the West that Mr. W. B. Glenn, Elector for the Seventh District, is making a vigorous and effective canvass. He has already spoken in the counties of Alexander, Wilkes, Alleghany and Surry, and has done much good.

Active Work for the Fair.

Last night, at the Yarboro House, the following members of the Executive Committee of the North Carolina Agricultural Society, met as usual: A. Creech, Chairman; John Nichols, Esq., Dr. Eugene Grissom, Col. D. M. Carter, Gen'l R. F. Hoke, Col. T. Geo. Walton, Col. Walter Clark, and Capt. C. B. Denson, Secretary.

The premium list was placed in the hands of a committee for final revision and the new list of supervisors was arranged.

The Secretary read a number of letters, making donations to the premium list. Among these figured a ton of phosphate, a fine Silerian buck, cultivators, plows, agricultural books, &c., &c.

Progress in putting the track in good condition, was reported by Gen. Hoke.

The premium list is to be printed at once, and the business men of Raleigh are asked to contribute cards of advertising. A canvasser will call upon them at once.

On motion of Gen. Hoke, Dr. Blacknall, Dr. Grissom and Col. Carter, were appointed a committee to request the suspension of the active political canvass during Fair week, in the interests of all.

Various kind and encouraging letters are in hand from the citizens of this and other States. Let the city go faithfully to work now to make success certain beyond peradventure.

Fortune, the Forger Captured.

A correspondent at Henry's, McDowell county, writes us under date of the 29th instant, that the notorious forger, W. P. Fortune, of Buncombe county, who will be remembered by newspapers readers as having some three months ago, made a raise of about $8,000 from Charleston banks on forged paper, and who has for some time past been making himself scarce, was captured last Monday night, in the neighborhood of his home on the Swannanoa river. The parties who captured him arrived at Asheville with him late at night, and it was not learned certainly, but it is supposed that he was committed to jail to await a requisition from the Governor of South Carolina.

An Application for Pardon.

W. C. Durham, Esq., of Shelby, writes to the Governor in reference to a petition which was filed in the Executive office nearly a year ago, by the late Captain Plato Durham, for the pardon of Andrew Williams, colored, who was convicted at the Spring term, 1875, of Cleaveland Court, of the larceny of one pound of bacon, and sentenced to three years in the Penitentiary, which term he is now serving. The Governor has never taken any action upon the petition. Three years for a pound of bacon is pretty steep.

Good Sales.

A day or two ago a grocery firm in this city sold $1,000 worth of goods in cash, and the same day a hardware firm sold goods to a couple of country merchants, who have hitherto been going North to make their purchases, to the amount $350 in cash. This is a good showing, considering the dull times and the scarcity of money, and reveals the gratifying fact that country merchants are learning to save money by buying at home instead of losing it by going North.

A Convict Killed.

We learn that on last Monday, while the day force of convicts on the Western North Carolina Railroad work, were engaged in the Swannanoa tunnel, the boss in charge having occasion to come out of the tunnel, in order to direct some work at the blacksmith shop, two of the convicts, Peter Little and Albert Long, both colored, engaged in a fight. Albert was struck by Peter, whereupon the former whipped out a long knife and stabbed Peter in the heart, producing instant death

Executive Committee's Rooms.

The rooms of the Central Executive Committee of the Democratic party, over the Citizen's National Bank, corner Fayetteville and Martin streets, are open, and Mr J. J. Litchford, long a faithful and capable member of the committee, can always be found there. We are authorized by the Chairman of the Committee to say to our Democratic friends throughout the State, that they will be cordially welcomed at the headquarters of the committee when they visit Raleigh.

Still Another.

The President of the Hayes and Wheeler Club, at Hertford, has recently been indicted for larceny, and put in jail. The chosen leaders of this pure and undefiled organization are going down at such a rate, as to cause the liveliest apprehension among those who do the voting lest in November there won't be a sufficient number of them outside the Penitentiary who are intelligent enough to hold the offices.

NEWS FROM FOWLE.

The Silver Tongued Orator at Concord—A Large and Enthusiastic Crowd.

[Special to the News.]

CONCORD, Aug. 31.—Hon. D. G. Fowle had a grand reception upon his arrival here last evening. He was met at the depot by Paul B. Means, Esq., Capt. N. P. Foard, Dr. Gibson, and Sheriff R. S. Harris, together with a large number of other citizens, and carried from the depot in an elegant carriage, drawn by four horses, and quartered at the American Hotel. Here a large crowd greeted him with rounds of cheers. He was serenaded afterwards and was introduced by Paul B. Means, Esq.

The speaking to day was fine, and was listened to by a very large audience. The crowd was rapturous with delight The stand was beautifully decorated, and after the speaking Judge Fowle was the recipient of a number of beautiful bouquets

In the afternoon a Tilden and Vance pole was raised 143 feet high, and as the flag went up, there was a tremendous cheer from the vast concourse. Captain N. P. Foard was introduced by Mayor C. G. Montgomery, and addressed the crowd in a forcible and convincing manner.

Old Cabarrus is all right, and will do her duty fully and nobly in the impending contest. N. S.

The Register's books show also that from September, 1875, to September, 1876, there have been 420 marriages in Wake county. Is it any wonder that the country is poor?

Digests of Supreme Court Decisions.

Proof of a consideration is not necessary to entitle a plaintiff to recover upon a bond to pay money. The seal imports a consideration. A voluntary bond to pay money is good, even if it be proved that there was no consideration. It is only where a plaintiff is obliged to invoke equity to enforce a bond, that it is required of him to show a consideration. Scott v. Jones.

An action in tort commenced 30th December, 1872, for a tresspass committed in 1867, is not barred by the statute of limitations That statute, as to such actions, did not begin to run until the 1st day of January, 1875.

Tenth Volume.

The DAILY NEWS enters to-day upon its 10th volume. Since the date of its establishment, the people of North Carolina have stood by it manfully, and its best purpose is to stand by them and subserve their interests in return. It is to-day prosperous and vigorous, and filled with years of zealous service for the party and the people whose welfare it has at heart.

Tobacco District Convention.

The Durham Tobacco Plant calls attention to the fact that this body meets next Tuesday, at Henderson, Granville county. The convention was organized in Raleigh some months ago. Business of importance will be brought before the body, and it is desirable that every manufacturing establishment in the district shall be represented.

Convicts Escaped.

We learn by private letter that last Monday morning, about daylight, as a part of the convicts (five) who were quartered at the middle or Lick Log stockade at the Western terminus of the Western N. C. Railroad, were removing and emptying the buckets from the cells, three made a break and succeeded in making good their escape, although some eight or ten bullets were searching for them.

Howerton and Tourgee.

It is rare that a paper can support two libel suits at one time. And the NEWS has two such nice fellows after it, too—the scalawag Belknap of North Carolina, and the rifle-eyed carpet-bagger from the Buckeye State.

[For the News.

Meeting in Warren County.

Mr. Editor: According to publication the citizens of Sandy Creek, Warren county, met at Brookston, on Saturday, the 26th day of August. There was a good number of citizens present. A. R. Wortham, Esq. was called to the chair, who explained the object of the meeting in a few and appropriate remarks, to-wit: the organization of a Tilden and Vance Club.

On motion the meeting appointed Robt. Twitty, James R. Carroll, R. D. Best, a committee on constitution and by-laws.

While the committee was in consultation, W. A. Montgomery made a very appropriate speech of about an hour.

The committee recommended A. R. Wortham for President, and for Vice-Presidents, Robt. Twitty, J. R. Carroll, James H. Nuckles and Jos. Duke; for Secretary and Treasurer, Lewis B. Yancy.

Mr. S. J. Skinner, of the Henderson Club, and H. N. Foote, came forward and made some powerful remarks in favor of Reform Tilden and Vance.

Mr. Montgomery, who had been accused of being a limber-legged Democrat, came forward and made a powerful vindication of himself.

The following named gentlemen were elected a working committee: R. D. Best, John Smith, G. H. Yancey, R. M. Kearney, Mr. Dunn and J. Bunyan Smith.

The Club meets again on the second Saturday in September, and will meet every second and fourth Saturday in each month.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

S. B. YANCEY, Secretary.

Convicts Received.

A. A. Hill, deputy sheriff of Alexander county, has just arrived in the city with Sandy Conrad, Miles Phillips and Julius Robnet, all of whom were convicted of larceny at the last term of Alexander Court. The first named was sentenced to four years in the Penitentiary, and the other two to three years each.

READ our breezy letter from the sea-side.

CAPT. JARVIS is getting the upper hand of Billy Smith in the Mountains. Records don't lie, you know, —although Radical demagogues may.

THE favorite sailing boat at Beaufort is named "Zeb Vance." We fail to hear of one named "Tom Settle." Thomas' friends don't use boats. They imitate their chief, and walk.

COL. NEILL MCKAY comes to the front again. By this time he has probably learned that there is a parlor, and that there is a kitchen. He will get new evidence of that fact on the 7th of November.

HON. David P. Lewis, the last Republican Governor of Alabama, is out in a letter declaring for Tilden and Reform. There never was a healthier season for republicans to get on the sunny side of the situation.

WE regret the suspension of the Wilmington Review. Although a third Democratic paper is superfluous in a place where two such able, patriotic and newsy papers as the Journal and the Star exist; still, the Review was a welcome visitor to our office, and we could not but wish it success.

THE value of the real and personal property of North Carolina, in 1875, gained over twelve millions and a half dollars on the valuation of 1874. The Auditor's report shows this. Under an honest administration of the affairs of government, we may confidently look for a rapid increase in the wealth of the State.

ANOTHER LIBEL SUIT.

Albion W. Tourgee, the Carpet-Bagger, brings suit against the NEWS, for libel. The alleged libel consists in the allusion made by our reporter to Mr. Tourgee as "an ex-penitentiary convict," in the account which we published of the proceedings of the Republican State Convention.

In the spirit of fairness, we promptly stated in a subsequent issue of the NEWS, in substance that this charge had never been proven, and that we would not gravely make a statement which we could not substantiate.

Mr. Tourgee may or may not have been a convict. That's one of the things, as Lord Dundreary would say, that no fellow can find out. But we do know of him that he is as corrupt and as malicious as a carpet-bagger ever gets to be.

Mr. Tourgee, carpet-bagger, seems to claim citizenship in Wake, yet he brings suit in Guilford; and though the Fall Term of Guilford Court has not yet begun, he makes the writ returnable to next Spring Term. For the damages he will get, or the advantage he will gain, he may as well have brought suit in Guinea.

The statement about him, for which he brings this libel suit, has, perhaps, been made on every stump and in every Democratic paper in North Carolina during the last eight years—in fact, ever since the carpet-bag thieves began to rob and plunder our good old State. It is a little strange that he should just now begin to consider his reputation. If he had considered it in 1868, he would not now deserve punishment. When the jury come to consider his suit for damages for alleged injury to his "good name," they will first have to try the question did he ever possess such a thing as "a good name."

This libel suit is the second one pending against the NEWS. We hail these facts as among the best signs of the growing usefulness and influence of the NEWS in the cause of Reform. We feel encouraged. When we hear our adversaries squeal, we know our shot has hit the mark. It is natural that the carpet-baggers should attack us, as long as we sail under a banner which bears upon its unspotted folds the inscription "Down with the thieves."

HORATIO SEYMOUR.

New York and Indiana are considered by both sides as the battle-fields of this campaign. If the Republicans carry these States in the October elections, we are frank to say that the chance of a Democratic victory in the Presidential contest would be rather slim, for comfort. On the other hand, if the Democrats are successful in the Gubernatorial contests of New York and Indiana, the bottom will drop out of Radicalism; the tide would turn in a mighty, irresistible flood towards Reform, and Samuel J. Tilden be borne in triumph to the White House. If any Republican doubts this, we refer him to the statement of General Garfield, one of his own tribe, that if Tilden can carry New York and Indiana he will be elected. This is conceded.

The New York Herald, the best informed of the Northern papers, expresses the opinion that the Democrats will carry Indiana. General Kilpatrick concedes it to Tilden, as we learn from the Cincinnati Enquirer.

The whole thing, then, hinges upon New York. The people of that grand old Empire State are the arbiters of the nation's destiny, and to them in this contest turn the eager eyes of millions of men who long for better government—for purer ways, for the manifold blessings of genuine peace and substantial prosperity.

The unexpected nomination of Horatio Seymour for Governor of New York, will brighten the hopes of the Democracy into the full confidence of victory. For it is conceded that Seymour can carry New York. With Gov. Tilden to back him, he is all-powerful.

The Southern people voted for him enthusiastically in 1868. We recognize in him one of the truest friends of the South. He is a wise statesman, a highly cultivated man, and one of the purest patriots in the North. He is acknowledged to be the strongest and most highly esteemed popular leader in the State of New York next to Tilden. His nomination harmonizes the various factions in the Democratic party of New York, and is equivalent to an election.

OUR TENTH VOLUME.

The NEWS to-day enters upon its tenth volume; which marks the beginning of the closing half of the fifth year of its existence.

The fact must now be recognized that the NEWS has become a thoroughly established institution, closely interlocked with the business and political interests of North Carolina, and firmly rooted in the good-will of the people.

We can to-day, claim, without boasting, the largest circulation of any newspaper in the State; and an advertising patronage which has no superior within our borders.

The point which the NEWS has reached in the upward course of journalistic success has been gained by a steady, unwavering devotion to the true interests of North Carolina, and in the face of a strenuous, active, bitter opposition. The stability of the NEWS as an institution, and the hold it has upon the good will of the people, has been thoroughly tested; and we are proud to say, it has come out triumphantly from the fiery ordeal of criticism to which it was subjected. The NEWS has never lost sight of the fact that it has ever been emphatically the paper of the people, and it attributes its success to the faithfulness with which it has reflected their sentiments.

The course of the NEWS, under its present management, will be such as to maintain the popular confidence it has acquired as a valuable business medium and faithful exponent of Democratic sentiment and opinion. We will continue to fully present the great political questions of the day, and the numerous issues to be decided at the polls next November. Dodging no issue, fearing no censure, dealing in no half-truths, earnest in our devotion to the cause of Reform, we will go on in our course, determined to do all in our power to aid in the great work of redeeming the country from the rule of a corrupt and wicked party.

RADICAL SLANDERS.

The Republicans have been unparallelled in their manufacture of slanders against the Democratic candidates. Well may the campaign be called "the devil's canvass," so far as Radicalism is concerned. The spirits of Beelzebub, Ananias and Sapphira combined seemed to have seized upon the whole concern. But, occasionally there is an exception to the rule. The Daily Graphic, Republican in politics, has the fairness to say, right out and above board:

"In this campaign it were well if Republicans would concede to their adversaries a monopoly of the fabrication business. Let the followers of Hayes tell the truth as much as possible, and get along with just as few lies as will support life. They might drop, for instance, as unprofitable baggage, that new yarn about Tilden having had $25,000 of the Credit Mobilier steal, and that other one which alleges that Hendricks was the vice president of the treasonable Knights of the Golden Circle. What's the use? And that grossly improbable story that in a recent speech Zebulon B. Vance, Democratic candidate for Governor of North Carolina, said: "I am sorry that I laid down my arms in 1865; I am in favor of re-enslaving the negro, and if that cannot be done at once, my idea is to adopt a plan which will bring about such a condition of things. I would deprive the negro of education privileges; I would pay him low wages; I would prevent him from acquiring real estate; I would deprive him of arms, ammunition, stock and agricultural implements.'

"Let us abandon these common slanders and tell only such lies as we shall not be ashamed of when we come to die"

COL. BENJAMIN ASKEW, of Jones county, has been nominated for the Senate, from the counties of Jones, Carteret, and Onslow. He richly deserved this compliment. He has labored earnestly and faithfully in the cause of Democratic reform. His investigation of the Jones county pauper case alone has done great good, in arousing the public mind to a true conception of the degrading and abominable tendencies of Radicalism. The name of Ben Askew is now indissolubly connected with the vital issue of Anglo-Saxon supremacy in the South; and his election will be a well-merited tribute to his zeal and patriotism.

THE Democrats will certainly carry Hyde county. We have an admirable ticket in the field there. Colonel William S. Carter, the nominee for House of Representatives, was a member of the Constitutional Convention of 1875. His record in that body is without a flaw. He never dodged a vote; and stood square up to the interests of the east, as well as of the whole State. He was among the most modest and unobtrusive gentlemen in the Convention, but none the less useful as a representative, for that. Our correspondent from Hyde, gives a faithful survey of the field in that quarter.

THE appointment of a Professor of Natural History for the University of the State will enhance the practical value and usefulness of the Institution. Mr. W. H. Smith comes with a good reputation for proficiency in Zoology, Botany, Geology, Mineralogy, &c. We hope he is also a proficient in practical agriculture, so that the young men who are taught by him may know how to farm successfully.

MAYOR CANNADY, of Wilmington, has been set up by the Radicals, for Hon. A. M. Waddell to knock down, figuratively speaking. No Republican can beat "Ally Waddell," in the 3rd Congressional District. He has served his constituents well; and they swear by him.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

Col. R. T. Bennett, of Anson, is said to be in the field again for Senator.

Danbury Reporter: Governor Vance will undoubtedly carry this county by a large majority.

Hon. James M. Leach will address the people of Anson county, at Wadesboro, on the 9th day of September.

W. B. Glenn, Democratic Elector in the Seventh Congressional District, met Dr. I. W. Jones, on the stump at Taylorsville, last Monday, and gave him a severe drubbing.

Reidsville News: We have it on good authority that Capt. Thomas Settle voted in 1861 for J. R. McLean, the Secession candidate for the Confederate Congress, in opposition to R. P. Dick, the well-known Union candidate.

Goldsboro Messenger: Old Wayne is already in a blaze of enthusiasm. The Conservatives are rallying to a man, and will poll the largest vote ever polled in the county, but the radicals thus far lie low—doubtless resting on their oars and preparing to colonize negroes.

Goldsboro Messenger: On dit—that the radicals will nominate W. T. Faircloth and L. W. Humphrey for the House, W. G. Morrisey for the Senate, John R. Smith for Sheriff J. T. Pearson for Register, and that colonization of negroes is their only hope of success. This from a reliable Republican source.

A correspondent of the Charlotte Democrat says: "In Catawba county a convention of a few radical revenue men and their sympathizers was held at Newton on the 22d inst., and nominaten "Col. P. M. Heilderbrand" for the Legislature. He had heretofore been a Conservative, but failed to get a nomination from our party and the Rads took him up. Of course they cannot elect him, but it may secure him an office hereafter if the Radicals are successful in the State and National elections.

The Danburry Reporter, noticing the speaking between Vance and Settle at that point, says: "Judge Settle, in order to prove his assertions against Governor Vance's war record, produced the infamously garbled letters furnished him from Washington. He only quoted isolated sentences, which, by themselves, could prove nothing to an intelligent mind beyond the unfairness and unblushing meanness of any man who could so operate against an opponent. Those letters alone ought to consign Judge Settle to the lowest depths of public scorn and detestation. They gained him no support here, but actually made votes for Vance.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Reform--Reform--Reform.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 29, 1876.

Mr. Editor: A specimen of Radical reform is shown by the recent lease of the Shepherd building for the use of the Prussian officer, and the Bureau of Education, by Zach. Chandler, Secretary of the Interior, and chairman of the Hayes and Wheeler Executive Committee, at a rental o at least forty per cent above its real value. And this, too, in direct violation of law. Boss Shepherd is a friend of Grant; he must, therefore, be well paid out of the people's money in some shapes. Further, large sums are needed to bolster up the sinking ship, and by agreeing to pay the Boss a rental so largely in excess of what it is really worth for a series of years, he can well afford to give liberally to the corruption fund.

At the recent session of Congress an attempt was made to prevent assessments upon office holders for political purposes, but the law is so worded as to prohibit our office-holder from assessing as being assessed by another office-holder, and does not apply to outsiders. Hence these assessments are now being made in all the departments here openly and unblushing, principally by a man named Rutherford, who figured for a time as a saloon-keeper at Wilmington, but was last fall ignominiously kicked out of the Treasury Department, here for gross and culpable neglect of duty.

HYDE COUNTY.

Crop Prospects--County Nominations --Certainty of Democratic Success.

FAIRFIELD, HYDE CO., N. C., August 24, 1876.

Mr. Editor: The area of land planted in cotton in this county, although never very large, has been very much diminished the present year, say at least thirty per cent. The recent heavy rains has caused the cotton to shed its forms and materially damaged it in other ways. The breadth of land planted in corn is fully as large as last year and may be slightly more. The crop at this time is not fully up to the standard; in most parts of the county it is beginning to show the effects of the heavy rains. The next ten days will determine the yield of this crop. If the rains cease from this time the crop will mostly recover, otherwise it will be much shortened.

Owing to rust, which has so seriously damaged the wheat crop for several years past, there was but little wheat planted—yield not good. The pea crop, which has become a crop of considerable importance in this section, is looking well.

The Conservative Democratic party held their Convention on the 1st Thursday in August. The nominees were, for House of Representatives, Col. Wm. S. Carter; Sheriff, H. S. Gibbs; Register of Deeds, B. G. Credle; Treasurer, W. P. Barnes; Commissioners, N. Beckwith, G. W. Swindell, T. M. Jones, Daniel Burgess, W. T. Farrow. The Convention was harmonious. All the officers were nominated on first ballot.

There is but little political excitement in the county. The Executive Committee have invited the people to assemble in the different Townships on Saturday, 26th of August, for the purpose of organizing Tilden and Vance Clubs. We shall have several in full operation in a few days.

We hope for some accessions from the Radical party. The field in this county has been worked so close for several years that we do not expect much from this source. We expect to give the ticket at least two hundred majority. If we can get Vance down here to speak the majority may swell to two hundred and fifty.

W. S. C.

BEAUFORT.

Politics--Vance Ahead--Matters in General at the Sea-Side.

BEAUFORT, N. C., Aug. 29, 1876

Mr. Editor:—Your correspondent has taken time, since his arrival, to ascertain from the people the feeling they entertain toward our candidates, and am glad to report that in the estimation of the best judges we will have a gain on the whole ticket of over three hundred on any previous election, and on Gov. Vance, at least one hundred over that. Every one here, white and black, is for Zeb Vance. Even the sailing boat named "Zeb Vance," beats all others; though I must say I have yet to see one named Thomas (or Tom) Settle. There was one marked U. S. Grant, but the owner, "Old Steve," has hoisted a Tilden and Vance flag as his ensign.

There is not a fisherman in the county who is not determined to be at the polls, even if he loses a run of mullets, and that is a very serious thing, as my friend, Jim Davis, will tell you.

All the county ticket will be elected, with W. V. Geffroy, for the House, as leader.

All are anxious for Vance to come here, and if they are advised of his coming, in time, the whole country will be present. And let Settle come along, (Capt Dixon says,) and ride just once in the "Zeb Vance."

I am staying at my old quarters, at Miss Davis', in a pleasant neighborhood, rendered Moore attractive by the presence of at least two amiable young ladies; one of whom has instructed in the sciences. Moore class more young men than can be enumerated by name, at present, as they belong to the clergy, farm, railroad, &c.

The Atlantic House, under its present proprietor, (Mr. Sublett) is kept as well as any house, North or South, can be. The table is furnished with the best of the season, and to my surprise, I found the nicest and sweetest of cherries on the the table, shipped to the proprietor, from Pitt county. Dodson (the clerk) is the best of fellows and often asks me where that Haywood is, who favors Woodson—a compliment hard favored to both.

The Tilden and Vance Club are very strong here, and were much disappointed in not hearing a speech from your promising young townsman.

The improvements on the water front since the fire exceeded my anticipations, and are really a credit to the enteprising spirit of the people, Captain Ives has two splendid boats, and has charge of the boat line from Morehead for the transportation of passengers, and has certainly made it convenient. He has built a wharf at which the cars stop, and there is no danger of taking a "Rolls tumble," and insures the safe delivery of all baggage and personal effects. I have had several trips "blue fishing," and on the one of yesterday, with Dr. Marshall, (who never tires of curiosities) saw the famous "Ink Fish." Of all the disagreeable flesh crawling looking objects that the grand old ocean bears, this (while it may be useful) is the most disgusting. I have ordered one to be sent to Caldwell with instructions how to keep up, and you will not have to buy any more ink.

The visitors have not been very numerous on account of the "Centennial."

Blue fish are coming in brisk, tho' I don't want too many lovers of that sport to come at one time and destroy my fun. Will write again soon.

BEAUFORT.

EDUCATION.

How the Radicals Robbed the School Fund.

[From the Wilmington Journal, 1872.]

In no respect possibly have the Radicals shown more plainly their wanton, wilful disregard of the best interests of the people than they have in the matter of education. It is clearly one of the first duties of a State, if it would be prosperous and happy, to educate its children. No political party, therefore, having control of the Government to such an extent as to shape its action, can be held blameless if the children of the State, especially and particularly the poor children of the State, do not have placed within their reach facilities for acquiring at least those ordinary branches of education that a citizen must possess to enable him to transact the every-day business affairs of life.

Let us apply this test to the Radical party since it came into power in April, 1868. From that time until 1st of October, the beginning of the next Fiscal year, there was not a dollar spent for teaching unless $69 paid to Ashley for services of clerk can be so considered.

During the Fiscal year, beginning on the 1st of October, 1868, there was spent out of the Educational Fund, $167,158.18. Not one dollar of this large amount was spent in teaching the poor children of North Carolina to read or write. Instead of that the Radical Legislature took $158,000 of that amount and paid it in part to themselves under the name of per diem at the rate of seven dollars a day. For this and other purposes, equally opposed to the advancement of the cause of education, we say, the Radical Legislature used $158 000. Three thousand dollars of the money was "loaned" to the University to pay the salaries of Professors such as Ashley's brother-in-law, Professor Martling, so-called; Settle's cousin, Professor Patrick, the Banjo Player; John Pool's brother, President Sol. Pool; and Dickson, the Professor of Agriculture, who, in making contracts for clearing the College lands, it is said, specially reserved to the College, cut all of the hickory and tall gum trees because "they would split so easy and make such elegant rails," and Dickson was about the best man in the lot!

The balance of the amount, $6,158,-18, is put down to what is called the "expense account." In this account we find that one J. W. Hood, a negro preacher, was paid $925 as salary as Agent of the Board of Education. He made a report declaring that the whites had burned the school-houses of the blacks and were interfering with their education. This report is a part of the work that this negro preacher Hood was paid $925 for in the year 1868

Not a dollar of this large sum of $167,158.18 was spent in teaching children to read or write. We get these figures from the Radical Auditor's official report.

During the Fiscal year begining 1st October, 1869, there was spent out of the Educational Fund the sum of $203,411.01, which was expended as follows

Invested in State Bonds.....	$150,000.00
D. A. Jenkins.....	131.20
Soper.....	75.00
Costs in law suit.....	29.20
Poll tax returned.....	415.15
Paid to teachers of schools.....	38,981.86
Paid to Jno. Hood.....	1,778.00
Loaned to University.....	10,000.00
Loaned to D. and D. Asylum	2,000.00
Total.....	$203,311.01

The investment in State bonds has, of course, proved an entire loss as have the amoun's paid to Hood and loaned to the University. Indeed, it is thought Professor Dickson will get his gum rails before the Educational Fund will get back its $10,-000.

Not one-fifth of the whole amount expended was applied to Common Schools! Out of over two hundred thousand dollars expended, less than thirty nine thousand was paid to teachers.

Let us look into this matter a little further. $150.000 was invested in Special Tax State Bonds. These bonds are worthless, but the money with which they were bought was good money. $148,000 of it came from the sale of 4,000 shares of stock in the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Company. The par value of this stock was $400,000, and according to the terms of the late lease of that road, the parties who bought those 4,000 shares will receive each year $28,000! Had this stock been held, the Educational Fund would now receive a yearly income of $28,000 instead of holding worthless coupons of worthless Special Tax Bonds!

During the Fiscal year, beginning on 1st October, 1870, the Conservatives were partially in power, and during that time $177 497 96 was spent out of the Educational Fund. Of this amount the Radical Auditor's Report shows that $174,753 20 was expended for Common Schools. The account stands, therefore, as follows:

Under Radical rule from April, 1868, to 1st October, 1870, spent for teachers.....	$38,981.86
Under Conservative rule from October 1st, 1870, to October 1st, 1871, spent for Common Schools.....	174,753.20
Difference in favor of Conservatives.....	$135,771.34

Comment is unnecessary. If our people feel an interest in the cause of education, and desire an economical administration of their affairs, let them vote for the candidates of the Conservative Party.

The Difference.

[Charlotte Observer.]

In the discussion between Gov. Vance and Judge Settle at Winston, Vance said, "I will tell you the difference between Judge Settle and myself. I was a Union man at the beginning of the war and stuck to it until my State went out of the Union. I could not turn my gun against my own people, so I went with them and made the best fight I could. My competitor, Judge Settle, on the other hand was a violent war man and was such a red hot secessionist that if you had thrown him into a branch he would have scalded to death every tadpole for a mile and a half below him—" He could not finish the illustration for his voice was completely drowned by the cheers and laughter that went up from the immense multitude.

The Divorce Epidemic.

Domestic infelicities are becoming so numerous lately that the lawyers who are in the divorce line of business have their hands full. It is difficult to account for the disruption of family ties in so many instances at one time, especially as in every case alleged cruelty on the part of the husband is the cause of complaint. It is a sad subject to contemplate, although a fruitful one for the lawyers.—N. Y. Herald.

THE ROCKY MOUNT MAIL

Published every Friday at Rocky Mount N. C. Is a first-rate advertising medium, especially for those soliciting patronage from the section in which it is published. It has a fine local and general circulation, and is the only paper published in Nash county. Terms moderate, and can be found on first page.

THE ROBESONIAN.

Published every Wednesday morning in Lumberton, N. C., by W. Wallace McDiarmid, has the largest circulation of any country paper in the State. It circulates extensively in the counties of Robeson, Richmond, Bladen, Columbus, Cumberland, Brunswick, and in the adjoining portion of Marion, Marlboro and Darlington South Carolina. As a Local Newspaper it has no superior. It is one of the few country papers whose Editor and Publisher gives his whole time and attention to its columns.

In politics the ROBESONIAN will strive to promote the principles of the Democratic Conservative party, and is uncompromisingly in favor of White Supremacy. It local columns will always teem with the latest and best news, while its brief, intelligent and business like manner of its editorials will be short and lucid and upon subjects which directly concern our people. As an advertising medium it is much sought after and has a patronage second to no other country paper. Established in 1870, it has ever since been increasing in influence and popularity until it has reached and occupied the very front rank of North Carolina journalism.

RATES—CASH IN ADVANCE—One year, $2.50; Six months, 1.25; Three months, 75 cents. Send a three cent stamp for specimen copy. Advertising furnished on application. Also our campaign rates which are very low.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Capt. J. S. Faucett, depot agent of the Atlantic, Tennessee & Ohio Railroad, at Statesville, died of consumption in that town last Tuesday.

The Star says that Col. Joseph J. Cox, formerly of Wilmington, where he was engaged in the commission business, and where he has many warm friends, died at Lilesville, Anson county, Monday last, aged about 51 years. He leaves a large family.

The Observer says that the following companies are booked for the Charlotte Opera House the coming season: Haverly's Minstrels, September 18th; Madam Rentz's Female Minstrels, October 16th; Riching's Opera Troupe, November 6th and 7th; Mrs. Oate's Opera Troupe, December 11th; The Feildings, [play—"True Grit,"] December, 22d; Chanfrau Combination, January 24th and 25th. Boyd's Star Company has also made application.

The Goldsboro Messenger, of yesterday, says: In striking contrast with the grand reception given by our citizens to Gov. Zeb. B. Vance as he passed through Goldsboro some weeks ago, was that given to Judge Settle yesterday. Vance was met at the train by fully 400 of our best citizens, while only about half a dozen white Republicans (besides the personal staff of his would-be excellency) and about forty negroes, mostly boys, met at the train to greet ex-confederate capting Settle. Truly a dry reception, doubtless, painful to Captain Settle, for he forthwith sought a place for stimulants and took a sip of "the best." Ike Young, Steve Douglas, Jake Scott, Taz. Hargrove, and Dick Badger, constituted the "staff," while Col. Humphrey and Major Grant met the Judge at Princeton. At about 12 o'clock a long but empty excursion train came from Wilson to convey them to Magnolia, where Settle was expected to speak. Here seemed another disappointment. It is evident that a large crowd had been expected, but a small motley crew of less than 150 made up the precious cargo.
